

Drag 4 THE STRAIGHT GUY

Contestant: Sal Costantino
Drag Mom: Joey Raven

Sal is an amazing local artist and tattooer. He lives in the Denver area with his wife Karina, mother-in-law Yolanda (also see Miss Puerto Rico 1964), roommate Bilal, and fur baby Quigley. Karina is a successful doula, supporting families in the labor and delivery process. Sal's only son, Vinny, is currently pursuing a career in music production.

What inspired you to volunteer your time for the “Drag Eye” event?

I have always had respect for the art of drag performance and the transformation they undergo. I volunteered my time because I want to raise awareness and support for the Matthew Shepard Foundation and their mission to Erase Hate.

Personal Motto: “Treat everyone you know with love and respect. One day they might be writing your eulogy.”

Happy Hour Drink: I like a dirty gin martini or a smoky scotch on the rocks.
